my memory as Henry had told me he was going to try to get me a bluefish large enough to bake. He caught (three I think) small ones which he cleaned Thurs. night and then took two of them in to Mrs. Wilson that night. He was over at our house about seven Friday night and told me he had given these little fish to Mrs. Wilson as she was going home and as they were too small to bake and that he had caught a large fish for me but had put it in his
